WORK HISTORY

Senior Designer • eROI

Portland, Oregon • October 2014 to Current

As senior designer, I took the lead on many creative projects for Nike, Yamaha and Intel. Responsibilities include rapid prototyping, crafting visual identity systems and delivering compelling final deliverables across a range of digital mediums. Additionally, presentations skills are critical to the success of my job as I must both sell my work as well as problem solve on the fly with our clients. Further skills include art direction, leading critiques and helping bridge the gap between the design team and development.

Visual Designer • Sprokkit

Los Angeles, California • September 2009 to March 2014

Responsibilities include art direction and development of a range of digital and print projects for high profile brands including Denny's, Del Taco and Carl's Jr. Specific projects include website design, print advertising and brochure design. Additional skills include social media creation, analytics, banner ads and extensive HTML/CSS development.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts - Graphic Design • Oregon State University
Corvallis, Oregon • 2007
